DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

Restriction to one of the following inventions is required under 35 U.S.C. 121:

- I. Claim 1-10 & 11-29, drawn to determining a pollutant load of a source at a selected confidence level, classified in class 210, subclass 739.
- II. Claims 30-41, drawn to determining equivalency of loads of a pollutant of a source, classified in class 73, subclass 863.41.
- III. Claims 42-50, drawn to presenting results of a water quality analysis, classified in class 702, subclass 16.
- IV. Claim 51, drawn to presenting pollutant loads, classified in class 702, subclass 16.
- V. Claims 52-61, drawn to a computer system for assisting in trading of water quality relating to a pollutant, classified in class 702, subclass 23.

The inventions are distinct, each from the other because of the following reasons:

Inventions V and I-IV are related as process and apparatus for its practice. The inventions are distinct if it can be shown that either: (1) the process as claimed can be practiced by another materially different apparatus or by hand, or (2) the apparatus as claimed can be used to practice another and materially different process. (MPEP § 806.05(e)). In this case invention five can practice methods described in inventions I-IV.

Inventions I and II are related as subcombinations disclosed as usable together in a single combination. The subcombinations are distinct from each other if they are shown to be separately usable. In the instant case, invention II has separate utility such as determining equivalency of loads of a pollutant of a source using a trading ratio. See MPEP § 806.05(d).

Inventions I and III are related as subcombinations disclosed as usable together in a single combination. The subcombinations are distinct from each other if they are shown to be separately usable. In the instant case, invention III has separate utility such as presenting results of a water quality analysis providing earned credit information for a plurality of sources. See MPEP § 806.05(d).

Inventions I and IV are related as subcombinations disclosed as usable together in a single combination. The subcombinations are distinct from each other if they are shown to be separately usable. In the instant case, invention IV has separate utility such as presenting pollutant loads by displaying a map representing the sources. See MPEP § 806.05(d).

Inventions II and III are related as subcombinations disclosed as usable together in a single combination. The subcombinations are distinct from each other if they are shown to be separately usable. In the instant case, invention III has separate utility such as presenting pollutant loads by displaying a map representing the sources. See MPEP § 806.05(d).

Inventions II and IV are related as subcombinations disclosed as usable together in a single combination. The subcombinations are distinct from each other if they are shown to be separately usable. In the instant case, invention IV has separate utility such as presenting pollutant loads by displaying a map representing the sources. See MPEP § 806.05(d).

Art Unit: 2863

Inventions III and IV are related as subcombinations disclosed as usable together in a single combination. The subcombinations are distinct from each other if they are shown to be separately usable. In the instant case, invention IV has separate utility such as providing estimated loading information for a plurality of sources. See MPEP § 806.05(d).

Because these inventions are distinct for the reasons given above and the search required for each of the above mentioned groups is not required for other groups, restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper.
